Caring for the community since 1959

mecwa*care* was founded by a group of volunteers concerned about the elderly and vulnerable in their local area and is a unique story of a community caring for itself.

From humble beginnings in Malvern, mecwa*care* now provides care services in all 31 local council areas of metropolitan Melbourne and across a substantial area of regional Victoria, including three aged care residences on the Mornington Peninsula. It is proudly a not-for-profit, non-denominational charitable organisation with a reputation for excellence.
