Elstoft House

Residential Aged Care

A place to call Home

Nestled in the Geelong suburb of Hamlyn Heights, mecwacare Elstoft House is a warm and welcoming home with beautiful views over Corio Bay.

Our contemporary rooms, each with a private ensuite, provide comfort and privacy, with some offering stunning bay vistas. Recent renovations include a stylish new café where residents can enjoy quality time with family and friends.

Thanks to generous community donations, our fully stocked library offers endless hours of entertainment for book lovers. A well-equipped kiosk ensures everyday essentials – and a few delightful treats – are always on hand, while our onsite cinema invites residents to escape into the magic of Hollywood.

Spacious and comfortable lounges encourage socialising, lush garden areas provide a peaceful retreat in the fresh bay air and open courtyards are perfect for spending time with visitors. Convenient tea and coffee facilities make entertaining guests effortless and our secure environment ensures peace of mind for all.

Elstoft House is thoughtfully designed with dementia-friendly spaces and offers 24/7 care from registered nurses. Our ageing-in-place approach means residents can stay in familiar surroundings even if their care needs change.

Whether you're seeking residential aged care, respite services, or palliative care mecwacare Elstoft House could be the perfect place for you.
