Rositano House

Residential Aged Care

A Charming, boutique home

mecwacare Rositano House in Richmond is a comfortable, relaxed home just a short walk from cafés, shops and public transport.

Spacious lounges encourage socialisation and the undercover outdoor area provides a peaceful space to relax in the fresh air all year round.

Our chefs prepare delicious, nutritious meals daily, catering to dietary needs while satisfying taste buds. The home features a communal dining room as well as a private dining room for residents to entertain visitors. The safety of the facility ensures comfort and peace of mind for residents, families and staff.

With a variety of care services available, Rositano House provides kind and attentive care. Registered nurses are always onsite to ensure high-quality care. Respite care is available for short or long-term stays and the ageing-in-place approach ensures that residents won't need to move if their care needs increase. Palliative care services allow families to focus on their loved one's comfort and dignity.

With services and amenities right at your doorstep, residents will feel at home at Rositano House. If you're looking for residential aged care, temporary respite, dementia care or palliative care in Richmond, mecwacare Rositano House could be the perfect fit for you.
