Vincent House

Residential Aged Care

A Warm welcome in Melbourne's north

Located in Westmeadows, mecwacare Vincent House is a warm, welcoming home with a strong community spirit.

Residents can unwind in the peaceful gardens or curl up with a good book in the cosy library. There's always something to enjoy, from engaging activities to sharing a meal with loved ones in the private dining room. With elegant surroundings and attentive staff, Vincent House is where special memories are made.

That same sense of comfort and care extends to every aspect of daily life. Our professional chefs prepare delicious, nutritious meals tailored to individual dietary needs and we offer a warm, supportive environment with a full range of care services. Whether you're staying for a short respite or long-term care, our ageing-in-place approach means you can remain in familiar surroundings as your needs change.

With registered nurses onsite 24/7, families enjoy peace of mind knowing support is always available. We also provide specialised dementia care and compassionate palliative care, ensuring dignity and comfort at every stage.

If you or a loved one are looking for aged care, respite or palliative care, mecwacare Vincent House could be the perfect place to call home.
