Wahroonga

Residential Aged Care

Picturesque comfort and care

mecwacare's Wahroonga offers community connections and companionship in a secure and scenic setting.

Wahroonga is a bright, north-facing home filled with natural light, featuring airy rooms and spacious private ensuites. With quality heating and cooling throughout, residents enjoy year-round comfort in a welcoming and well-appointed environment.

Choose between a standard room, premium room or double suite for couples. All rooms have adjustable king-single electric beds and memory support mattresses to promote restful sleep. Residents are invited to bring personal furnishings to make the space their own.

Spend peaceful days immersed in nature. Relax to the soothing sounds of native birdlife from the comfort of your chair, or take a gentle stroll through the gardens, including our specially designed dementia walk created to engage the senses and inspire moments of joy.

Whether you enjoy relaxing in the garden, joining in group activities or heading out on local outings, Wahroonga offers a wonderful balance of quiet moments and engaging experiences. With caring staff and a strong sense of community, residents are supported to make the most of each day in their own way.

Wahroonga provides personalised, compassionate care for those needing respite, permanent, dementia or palliative support.
