Warm and welcoming with a Hamptons-style feel

mecwacare Park Hill in Mornington is a warm and welcoming aged care home in the heart of the Mornington Peninsula. Recently renovated with a Hamptons-style feel, residents can relax and enjoy tastefully furnished dining and lounge areas. There are landscaped gardens with walking paths, a herb garden and a vegetable patch that is lovingly tended to by our residents.

A vibrant lifestyle and leisure program is designed with input from residents and based on the ideal of social inclusion. A broad range of activities includes cooking classes, garden club, quiz afternoons and art therapy. Residents also regularly enjoy outings to local restaurants and cafes, helping to maintain strong ties with the local community.

If you are looking for respite care, permanent aged care, dementia care or palliative care on the Mornington Peninsula, then mecwacare Park Hill is the perfect choice.
