Located on the banks of the Werribee River

Located within the picturesque township of Ballan this 30-bed nursing home and 31-bed hostel offer a person-centred approach to aged care.

A supported living environment assists residents to maintain an active and rewarding lifestyle. Within the homes, residents have access to a large day room that includes lounge and dining areas. Residents also have access to lovely gardens.

There is a strong focus on resident wellbeing, with many activities and outings organised with the residents' input and designed to cater for individual needs and interests.

If you are looking for respite care, permanent aged care, dementia care or palliative care in the Ballan area, then Ballan Nursing Home and Hostel could be just right for you.
