The Pines Retirement Village

mecwacare The Pines is beautiful retirement living village with just 25 modern and spacious apartments, set amongst expansive parklands.

Adjacent to both Sparrow Ground Reserve and Pennyweight Gully, you will benefit from the large open spaces without the hassle of upkeep.

With the added benefit of being co-located with mecwacare Wahroonga aged care facility, we can support you to age in place should you or your partner's care needs change.

The light and bright one- and two-bedroom apartments have been designed for comfortable, secure, self-contained living. Enjoy the peace of mind provided by The Pines' 24-hour emergency response service. Relax knowing mecwacare staff and fellow residents keep a safe eye on the village while you are away.

Open plan living, lounge and dining areas flow effortlessly through to bedrooms, with easy access bathrooms and outdoor balconies or patios overlooking gardens or parks. Generous cupboard and wardrobe space add to the overall impression is one of luxury, light and immaculate attention to detail. You will enjoy a cozy and comfortable lifestyle at The Pines, while enjoying the benefits of a downsized home with services aplenty.

There is no need to leave the comfort of the village for many services and amenities. Enjoy a pampering from the onsite hairdresser, pop into the well-stocked library for some new reading material and visit the dedicated movie room to watch the big game or a silver screen classic.

The villages' communal areas provide the perfect setting to socialise with friends, family and fellow residents at the café, billiards room, movie room or communal lounge. A monthly happy hour is held in the café; one of many regular social gatherings. The lounge hosts a karaoke choir and other activities or performances, while frequent game days are a hit with residents.

Keep your hands and mind busy with the gardening group at The Pines' community garden. Exercise your green thumb and help herbs and vegetables flourish on the north side of the village building. The knitting club will give you a chance to further establish new friendships, providing another socialising opportunity – with a little bit of knitting.

Creatives are spoilt for choice with a selection of art and craft groups, while birdwatchers and picnic enthusiasts will enjoy the nearby parklands and gardens. For when you prefer to venture further afield, simply hop aboard the village bus that for a regularly planned excursion or shopping trip.

mecwacare's home care services are also available at The Pines with maintenance and domestic services, nursing, and personal care available to you as a resident of The Pines. Fuss-free, fresh, delicious, and nutritious meals are also available to purchase from our adjacent aged care facility, allowing you to relax even further.

Join The Pines today and enjoy living with a friendly and social bunch of people at various stages of retirement or near retirement, all enjoying the benefits of downsizing without compromising on space.
