Come home to quality residential aged care at Wahroonga mecwacare's Wahroonga residential aged care offers the community connections, comfort, and companionship you need -all in a safe, secure, and scenic setting.

From the moment you step through the front doors of mecwacare's Wahroonga residence, the smiling faces of our experienced staff will help you feel at home. Each member of our professional team – from the personal carers to the chefs and cleaners – is committed to creating the clean, inviting and nurturing environment our residents call home.

With contemporary finishes and wide, bright corridors dappled with natural sunlight, this impressive 90-bed facility is nestled in a quiet location, flanked by the picturesque greenery of Pennyweight Gully and Sparrow Ground Reserve.

Spend peaceful days listening to the pleasant sounds of native birdlife as you take in the views from your window, or go for a stroll to explore the great outdoors, including the dementia walk - designed to delight and spark the senses.

Access to even more wide open spaces is easy with Woollahra Regional Park and Lake Esmond Botanical Park only a few minutes away.

Wahroonga is a light and sunny north-facing home, where you can enjoy the friendly feel of airy rooms with private, spacious ensuite bathrooms, and the added luxury of quality heating and cooling, keeping you comfortable all year round.

Our double suite rooms are designed to suit you and your partner, or anyone who appreciates more space.

Standard Room

Standard room with private ensuite bathroom

Each spacious single room features a private ensuite bathroom, side table and chair, and fully adjustable king-single electric bed -with the comfort of a memory-support mattress to help promote restful sleep.

Premium Room

Premium room with private ensuite bathroom

Experience extra room to move in this amazingly large and spacious single suite, complete with private ensuite bathroom and fully adjustable king-single electric bed, with a comfortable memory-support mattress, as well as a side table and chair.

Residents are invited to add a uniquely personal touch by bringing their favourite furnishings and belongings to truly make your new home as comfortable as possible.

At Wahroonga, enjoy high quality care in a convenient location, co-located with mecwacare The Pines retirement village.
