Wahroonga

Come home to quality residential aged care...Wahroonga

mecwacare’s Wahroonga residential aged care offers the community connections, comfort and companionship you need, in a safe, secure and scenic setting.

From the moment you step through the front doors of mecwacare’s Wahroonga residence, the smiling faces of our experienced staff will help you feel at home. Each member of our professional team – from the personal carers to the chefs and cleaners -is committed to the high-quality attention to detail that helps create the clean, inviting and nurturing environment our residents are happy to call home.

With clean, contemporary finishes, and wide, bright corridors that are dappled with natural sunlight, this impressive 90-bed facility is nestled in a quiet location, flanked by the picturesque greenery of Pennyweight Gully and Sparrow Ground Reserve.

Spend peaceful days listening to the pleasant sounds of native birdlife as you take in the views from your window, or go for a stroll to explore the great outdoors, including the specially designed dementia walk that is designed to delight and spark the senses.

Access to even more wide-open spaces is easy -with Woollahra Regional Park and Lake Esmond Botanical Park only a few minutes away.

Wahroonga is a light and sunny, north-facing home, where you can enjoy the friendly feel of airy rooms, with private, spacious ensuite bathrooms, and the added luxury of quality heating and cooling that keeps you comfortable all year round.

Our double suite rooms are designed to suit you and your partner and are also available to anyone who appreciates more room to move.

Heritage room

Single room with private ensuite bathroom –16-17 sqm

Each spacious single room features a private ensuite bathroom, and includes a side table and chair, plus a fully adjustable king-single electric bed, with the comfort of a memory support mattress that helps promote restful sleep.

Choosing your own favourite personal furnishings and belongings to add to your space helps you make your new home as comfortable as possible.

Classic room

Single room – 20-21 sqm

Experience extra room to move in this amazingly large and spacious single suite, complete with private ensuite bathroom and fully adjustable king-single electric bed, a comfortable memory support mattress, plus a side table and chair.

All residents are invited to add a uniquely personal touch by bringing favourite furnishings and belongings that truly make your new home as comfortable as possible.

At Wahroonga, enjoy high-quality care in a convenient location, co-located with mecwacare The Pines Retirement Village.
