Wahroonga

Come home to quality residential aged care at Wahroonga

mecwacare’s Wahroonga residential aged care offers the community connections, comfort, and companionship you need -all in a safe, secure, and scenic setting.

From the moment you step through the front doors of mecwacare’s Wahroonga residence, the smiling faces of our experienced staff will help you feel at home.

Each member of our professional team – from the personal carers to the chefs and cleaners – is committed to creating the clean, inviting, and nurturing environment our residents call home.

With contemporary finishes and wide, bright corridors dappled with natural sunlight, this impressive 90-bed facility is nestled in a quiet location, flanked by the picturesque greenery of Pennyweight Gully and Sparrow Ground Reserve.

Spend peaceful days listening to the pleasant sounds of native birdlife as you take in the views from your window, or go for a stroll to explore the great outdoors, including the dementia walk which is designed to delight and spark the senses.

Access to even more wide open spaces is easy with Woollaharung Regional Park and Lake Esmond Botanical Park only a few minutes away.

Wahroonga is a light and sunny north-facing home, where you can enjoy airy rooms with private, spacious ensuite bathrooms, and the added luxury of quality heating and cooling, keeping you comfortable all year round.

With the choice between a standard room, premium room, and double suite for couples, you will sleep soundly in the facility’s fully adjustable king-single electric beds, with the comfort of a memory-support mattress to help promote restful sleep.

All rooms feature private ensuites as well as a side table and chair. Residents are invited to add a uniquely personal touch by bringing their favourite furnishings and belongings to truly make your new home as comfortable as possible.

Enjoy high quality care in a convenient location, co-located with mecwacare The Pines retirement village. Whether it be respite care, permanent aged care, dementia care* or palliative care, you loved one will be safe, comfortable and cared for at mecwacare Wahroonga.
