Susan Barton House

Modern, welcoming and spacious aged care home in Bacchus Marsh

Discover a place where care meets compassion, and residents are embraced as part of a warm and vibrant community.

This picturesque facility is nestled in the heart of Bacchus Marsh, offering a tranquil escape from the bustling city while ensuring easy access to local amenities.

Susan Barton House is designed with comfort in mind, featuring spacious rooms and inviting communal areas where residents can relax and socialise.

Located next to wide green spaces that maximise views to the east this modern facility offers 144 beds across five small ‘home communities.’ Every one of the spacious and well-appointed rooms has access to lush gardens or sunny courtyards.

The cleverly designed layout ensures each community has its own lounge and dining spaces that encourage easy socialisation and provide private areas for visiting families to gather.

With room types to suit individual preferences and care needs, from Standard to Premium and even double suites for partners or those looking for a little more space. All rooms come with ensuites.

With an abundance of indoor and outdoor family friendly spaces including BBQ area, playground, onsite café and private dining room, special family celebrations are easily accommodated here.

Our diverse range of activities and programs cater to individual interests and abilities, encouraging residents to participate, socialise, and thrive.

From art classes to fitness sessions, cultural events to outings, there is always something exciting happening at Susan Barton House.

Our facilities include dedicated therapy rooms and access to allied health professionals to ensure residents receive comprehensive care.

Our commitment to wellbeing extends to nutritious and delicious meals prepared by our skilled chefs, accommodating special dietary requirements.

If you are looking for permanent residential aged care, temporary respite services, dementia care* or palliative care in the Bacchus Marsh area, then mecwacare’s Susan Barton House could be just right for you.
